To foster a productive atmosphere for bargaining. CWA hosts two social outings and BellSouth hosts two social outings during the bargaining process to which all members of both bargaining teams are invited. I attended two such outings hosted by BellSouth in 2004 (worth $162.59). In addition, BellSouth hosts a prebargaining meeting, which team leaders from both sides attend to plan for bargaining. The meeting is held out of town and BellSouth paid for the hotel expenses ($324.48 for two nights) I incurred attending that meeting. At the conclusion of bargaining, BellSouth also paid for a celebratory outing for the bargaining team leaders, consisting of dinner (worth $96.54). Prior to bargaining, BellSouth hosted an implementation meeting which included a round of golf (for $37.83).

Company reps are invited to annual CWA State Meetings where recreation is golf consisting of mixed Company and Union foursomes. CWA pays for some teams and BellSouth pays for some teams. The 2004 meetings are:

Georgia State Meeting:

October 12 - $29.96

October 15 - $32.10
